In cases where the Company will be handling Clients' Orders is required under the relevant regulatory framework to assign a relative importance on the following execution factors:

a. Price

Price is the most important factor for the company when considering best execution. Prices are obtained from industry leading institutions. Our team has the intention to continuously monitor the data feeds and internal pricing mechanisms to ensure the quality of the price generation process.

b. Cost

Cost is an important factor when execute Clients' orders. In order to keep the costs low, the Companies should source the best available prices from their liquidity providers. For opening a position in some types of CFDs the Client may be required to pay commission and/or financing fees, the amount of which is disclosed on the Company's website and/or trading platforms. Commissions may be charged either in the form of a percentage of the overall value of the trade or as fixed amounts. In the case of financing fees, the value of opened positions in some types of CFDs is increased or reduced by a daily financing fee "swap rate" throughout the life of the contract. Financing fees are based on prevailing market interest rates, which may vary over time. Details of daily financing fees applied are available on the Company's website and/or trading platforms.

Although the Company strives to execute all orders placed by the clients, it reserves the right to decline an order of any type or execute the order at the first available market price.

5. Close links, conflicts of interests and common ownerships with respect to execution venues
